Applegate, Mable Howe
Published: March 27, 1937
Publisher: Jackson County Times

~~Jackson Co. Times~~ 3/27/37

MRS. MABLE HOWE APPLEGATE

Mrs. Mable Howe Applegate, age 56, died Wednesday night at the Biloxi hospital, following an illness of only a few days.

Deceased was a native of England but had resided in the United States since a young girl.

Of a magnetic personality, pleasing and friendly manner, she quickly won the friendship and admiration of a host of acquaintances since her permanent residence in Ocean Springs for the past 10 years.

Mrs. Applegate is survived by her husband, Wm. E. Applegate, and one son, Capt. Edwin C., of U. S. Army, stationed at Ft. Crook, Neb., who arrived at his mother's bedside only a few hours after she passed away.

The body was taken to Louisville, Ky., accompanied by deceased's husband and son, for burial in Cave Hill Cemetery in the Applegate family plot.